

RESIDENT REFERS TO ALLEGED CRISIS

Remarks Constructed as an Admission of Possibility of Republican Defeat.

HOPE IN FUTURE

Nation's Chief Weary After His Long Tour and Strenuous Time in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—President Taft addressed a large audience at the dinner of the Hamilton club today by what he said was the last of his addresses in the coming national election, but he was speaking to what he promised to be an enthusiastic audience of Republicans.

President Taft hastened to disavow any intention of speaking after his long tour of speechmaking, and especially after the three days' campaign in Chicago. It was a public utterance in Chicago he was leaving for Pittsburgh tonight. He said:

Hopes for the Best.
We are at a time when people think, a crisis is at hand. I am hopeful that the good people of the country, who know a good deal about the possibilities of the future, will be better able to see the situation than we are. I have no intention of shifting the burden of the future to the shoulders of the people, but I believe that the people will be able to see the situation and to take the necessary steps to meet it.

Retires for Rest.
After his address the president retired to his hotel for a rest. He had been speaking for several hours and was very tired.

HAREM, HOBBLE AND HIGH HEELS BARRED

Woman Doctor Reads at W. C. T. U. Convention, Laying Down Laws for Sex.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 30.—Every woman attending the National W. C. T. U. convention bowed her head in respect to the memory of Carrie Nation, when the name of the famous saloon smasher was read at the memorial service incident to the convention.

Sixteen memorial subscriptions of $25 each were added to the organization fund to perpetuate the work of Miss Nation.

Papers on medical and scientific temperance, the relation of drink to health and heredity, the dangers of alcoholism, and the influence of the temperance movement on the health and heredity of the race, were read.

"No harem, hobble, nor high heels," announced Dr. Louise C. Farrington, national superintendent of health and heredity department, in the course of her paper in which she laid down laws for women.

"By insisting upon a good birthright and environment, clean homes and clean bodies, exercise in the open, by hygienic dress, by self-control, by our literature and all our sane and healthy endeavor, we are trying to do our part in the temperance work," said she.

Mrs. Martha W. Allen of New York, world superintendent of the department of the medical temperance, said that her paper was taken to the temperance hall, which is the popular belief in alcoholic liquors as nourishing, strengthening and stimulating in times of illness.

In support of her contention that this is a fallacy, she quoted Dr. Wiley, who said that a man who drinks too much is equal to winning a state for prohibition, she said.

NICARAGUA CABINET UNDERGOES SHAKEUP

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—With two exceptions, President Adolfo Diaz of Nicaragua accepted the resignation of the members of his cabinet and just made appointments filling the vacancies, according to a dispatch from Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 29.

Those who did not resign were General Luis Monte, minister of war, and Alejandro Canton, minister of fomento. It is believed the changes in the cabinet are an indication of the influence of General Monte's presidential election.

The new members of the cabinet are: Minister of foreign relations—Dr. Alfonso F. Villar; Minister of finance and public credit—Pedro Rafael Cuadra; Minister of interior and police—Diego M. Chaveria.

Consul Zavala said it was his opinion that the change assures the return of Nicaragua's government to the conservative policies. He said it was composed of some of the best men in the nation.

DECLARES CHARGE OF SOUTHERNER UNJUST
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary of Agriculture, Wilson, replying today to criticism made by Charles Qualey at the New Orleans cotton conference of the government's method of issuing cotton statistics, said his department was doing all it could to help the southern planter, just as by its investigations it is seeking to help other farmers to raise better wheat, corn and cattle.

Mr. Qualey, an editor of Fort Worth, Tex., charged that the cotton reports of the department of agriculture benefited the speculator and manufacturer much more than they did the consumer, and advocated the establishment of a joint bureau of statistics for the southern states as a remedial measure. The secretary was emphatic in his repudiation of Mr. Qualey's charge, declaring that the department's statisticians were seeking only to arrive at the truth concerning the cotton industry.

Newsboys Protested.
DENVER, Colo., Oct. 30.—Because an enterprising cigar dealer conceived the idea of giving the choice of any local newspaper to every child in the city, a small-scale riot occurred here tonight. Newsboys, with whom the cigar man's advertising scheme interfered to some slight degree, attacked the dealer's shop with sticks and stones, and destroyed the store front with old newspapers. It was necessary to call out the police to disperse the "mob."

Takes Carbolic Acid.
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—F. Loring Lothrop, 28 years old, a tinner in the United States sub-treasury, swallowed carbolic acid in a hotel tonight in an attempt to commit suicide. He said he had been driven to the act by a constant watch kept on him for several months by secret service operatives.

Mayor as Slouth.
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Disappointed with the progress the police have been making in following his orders to break up the "key" racket, Mayor Harrison today made a secret personal investigation.

The mayor's tour was made known when he summoned the chief of police to appear before him and explain why conditions in the district have not been improved. Rumors of the mayor's investigation in the personnel of the police force were revived.

Wilson at St. Louis.
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, returning from Texas, was met at the union station at noon today, and for an instant discussed the political outlook nationally with several leading state and local Democrats.

REVIEW OF PACIFIC FLEET ON WEDNESDAY
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 30.—With the fleet of the United States navy, the Pacific fleet, which will be reviewed by Rear Admiral Chancery, will arrive in San Diego on Wednesday.

Plans for the review promise a pageant that shall eclipse any previous naval display witnessed in Pacific waters. With the exception of the famous review of the battleship fleet in the bay of San Francisco several years ago, the only contingency that now causes concern is the possibility of fog.

Baltimore and Ohio Report.
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The annual report of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, shows gross earnings of $8,145,000, a decrease of $766,248, compared with the previous year, and net earnings of $2,756,087, an increase of $1,452,266.

CHINESE EMPEROR MAKES APOLOGY

Blames Himself for Existing Conditions and Promises Many Reforms.

The imperial edict has been widely discussed and it is generally believed that the emperor's apology will provide Yuan Shi Kai a powerful lever to use in his negotiations with the rebels. Its effect in Peking already is good. The fear of the people, which was great this morning when it became known that the capital was threatened with an attack unless the government acceded immediately to demands of far-reaching importance, had somewhat subsided tonight.

The emperor's apology received a letter signed by Shun Yen Fang in behalf of the Tien Tsin branch of the revolutionary committee announcing its intention soon to take possession of both Tien Tsin and Peking.

Collapsed Quickly.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The provisional government of Kwang Tung, recently declared by citizens of Canton, has fallen, according to state department advice today.

The collapse is due to the military and the principal civil and military authorities, and the fact that the troops in the province remained loyal to the viceroys.

Although Canton is reported quiet, the situation in that city and at Nanking is said to be threatening.

It is the intention of the government, according to reports, to cut the Peking-Hankow railway at Chongking and also the Peking-Mukden railway at Jwan Chow. Although the advice does not indicate the reason, it is undoubtedly to prevent the revolutionists from using the railroad in the advance on Peking.

Wu Chang Next.
HANKOW, China, Oct. 29 (via Wu Hu, Oct. 30).—The imperial forces are preparing to follow up their victory over the rebels last week by an attack on Wu Chang, which the revolutionists have protected by elaborate emergency fortifications, and Han Yang, which is regarded as of the utmost importance on account of the arsenal there.

Admiral Sah Chengling yesterday notified the foreign consuls that he was about to begin a bombardment of Wu Chang, and asked that all foreigners be ordered to leave at once.

The loyalists are now in undisputed possession of the entire city of Hankow, including the arsenal, the railway station, and the foreign consulates. Their position here is advantageous for a sudden attack against the arsenal at Han Yang.

A. H. Kepner, the American missionary who was wounded in fighting, is in a serious condition. His injuries are in the neck and arm. He was watching the fighting from the top of a building in the Japanese concession, when he was hit by a stray bullet. Mr. Kepner is attached to the Presbyterian mission station at Siang Tan.

Friday's battle at kilometer ten was a splendid exhibition of the rebel forces.

Although they were outnumbered two to one by the trained force of imperialists in front of them and were subjected from the flank to a raking cross fire from Admiral Sah's warship, they held their ground until nearly 600 had been killed and 500 wounded. At the end of the day they were compelled to retire. Their ranks were broken, but there was no panic.

The advance of the loyalists was a splendid justification of the training which these northern troops have recently received under European instructors. Ten thousand strong, they crossed into the rebel territory during the night and attacked the entrenched revolutionary forces at daybreak. They were able to capture 5000 of the rebel troops. These were behind well planned fortifications and had little to fear from the attacks of the troops. It was the guns of Admiral Sah's fleet which finally decided the day against them.

Sah's eight vessels approached the rebel positions soon after the advance of the imperial troops began, but did not fire. After a little while the eight ships silently retired as if they had decided not to participate in the engagement. Later they returned, this time ready for business.

Murderous Work.
The range was short and the gunners mercilessly poured in their shells on the rebel positions. The rebel batteries replied ineffectually and were finally silenced. The gunboats drew still nearer and the revolutionists were compelled to retreat.

The loyalists, whose losses had been slight, advanced on the abandoned trenches in splendid order under cover of the batteries, captured fifteen field guns and took fifty republican prisoners.

Will Repudiate Offer.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—Revolutionary leaders here are unanimous in declaring that the plan for a constitutional government offered by the Manchurian dynasty will not be accepted and that the rebellion will be continued until the monarchy is overthrown and a republic established.

"We do not want a monarchy," said Tong King Chong, secretary of the Chinese national committee here. "We do not admit the right of a Manchui to sit on the throne, even if he is deprived of it. We want a republic for us. We want the end, for gradually the old abuses would come back."

The plan of government demanded by the Chinese national assembly was formulated by Yuan Shi Kai. He offered it as a concession to us, some time ago, and we were disappointed. The so-called national assembly does not represent the people. Its decisions are made by a few of the different provinces and are friendly to the dynasties.

SLAUGHTER OF THE ARABS MERCILESS

London Correspondent Describes Ruthless Measures of Italians at Tripoli.

DUKE SLAIN IN ACTION

Count Seriously Wounded; Both Officers Gentlemen-in-Waiting to the King.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Tripoli correspondent of the Times, describing Italian retribution upon the Arabs, says that although the ruthless measures employed were not to be commended, yet the necessity for drastic action to quell the insurrection could not be denied.

The Italians having set themselves to cow the Arabs, continues the correspondent, "the flood gates of blood and but were opened, and in many cases the men guilty and the memory of this awful retribution will take long to live down."

Even making allowance for the exigencies of the military situation, there is every possibility that the heinous severity employed by the Italians will give rise to a war of sanguinary and pillaged reprisals upon unfortunates who fall by the wayside. War is merciless and one of its most hideous phases has been witnessed here.

Italian Duke Killed.
ROME, Oct. 30.—The Italian nobility, like the people, are paying tribute in blood in the African conquest.

Word has reached here of the death in action of Duke Rinaldo, a lieutenant in the navy, and of the serious wounding of Count Pompeo di Everso, lieutenant of cavalry and city governor-in-waiting to the king.

Both officers had many friends among the nobility and were well known to sportsmen, the duke as an exponent of tennis and Count di Campello as master of fox hunting.

Report Not Official.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The Turkish embassy received unofficial dispatches today confirming the capture of the city of Tripoli. These messages came indirectly from Constantinople. An official Turkish statement on the subject.

The state department received a message from Consul John Q. Wood at Tripoli, stating that the Italian forces had not treated the Arabs as severely as reports have indicated.

Systematic Slaughter.
TRIPOLI, Oct. 25 (via Malta, Oct. 30).—For three days the Italians have been systematically slaughtering Arabs in the city. The slaughter is being carried out in a dialogue wherein a young wife sobbed:

"And you used to say that you could hear the rustle of angels' wings whenever I drew near you!"

"But I found out now," the husband answered, "that the sound was the creaking of your broken corset bones!"

Turkish Success.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—A dispatch from Constantinople says:

According to news from Tripoli published here, the Turks have captured the last of the Italian outer entrenchments and are now advancing on the city. The Italian forces are now in a desperate position.

Farley Starts Next Week.
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Archbishop John H. Farley will sail for Rome some time next week to be present at the consistory to be held in the Vatican on November 27, official confirmation of his elevation to the cardinalate having been received here today.

Change in Cabinet.
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 30.—General Manuel Plata today was made sub-secretary of war, succeeding General Fall Gonzalez Salas as acting chief of that department. General Villar was named Friday to succeed Salas, and no explanation of the change has been given.

Suddenly Summoned.
TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 30.—Edward Wray, a millionaire property owner and sheep raiser of this city, died here today of auralgia of the heart. Mr. Wray was 66 years of age and came here penniless twenty-two years ago. A widow, two sons and two daughters survive.

Alike Fatal.
Thomas Moran, the veteran landscape painter, has devoted his life to the decoration of the Rockies and Sierras. Mr. Moran, on his return on the Milwaukee from Switzerland, said to a reporter:

"The Alps are nothing compared to the Rockies. After seeing the Rockies, should go to the Alps would suffer the bitter disappointment of the sanitary engineer in Venice."

"See Naples," remarked the engineer, "and die. Small Venice—same result."

HALLOWEEN PRANKS IN ORDER TONIGHT

Witches and Hobgoblins and Parties and All Sorts of Fun Scheduled.

Tonight's the night when all the kids in town will be on the move. They will not only be on the move themselves, but also will keep everything else on the move that isn't firmly nailed, screwed or cemented down. The only object that will escape the moving spirit will be the asphalt pavement on the streets.

For tonight's Halloween, Witches will sail through the air on broomsticks, in keen competition with the modern motor. Hobgoblins will appear on every hand, and the god fairies will make their presence known in a variety of ways.

It is the time-honored custom for pranking boys to lift gates from their hinges, and with much toil carry them half a mile away, replacing them with other gates that do not fit. Also garden hoses are a favorite topic of mischievous discussion on Halloween. The removal of one of the four wheels of the wagon is also a favorite form of diversion. The householder does not usually offer serious objection to the antics of the youngsters so long as they do not take a vicious turn or involve the destruction of property.

There will be in Salt Lake innumerable Halloween parties and one of these will be at the Kearns St. Ann's orphanage, and at All Hallows there will be a lecture on Home by I. M. Madden. The lecture will be illustrated. The pupils of St. Mary's academy celebrated last night.

A Warning.
Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, the new chancellor of New York university, was talking about his desire for a larger and deeper study of the arts in American colleges.

"In youth," said Dr. Brown, "the taste is formed, and it will be a taste for false and beautiful things or else it will be a taste for law and false things. Without great care it will be a taste for the false. Let us be warned by the anecdote of the little Klanton boy."

"This little boy was taken one summer day to the circus and was very much interested in the circus. He was asked by his mother to go to the circus with him. He said: 'Mamma, if you once went to the circus you'd never never consent to go to church again in all your life.'"

The Perilous Years.
Justice Ford of New York was discussing his famous dictum: "In my opinion, the most dangerous years of the ordinary course of life are the years of the ordinary course of life."

Justice Ford, elaborating this dictum, said: "After five years of marriage a spirit of gentleness and of love is born. But in the first two or three years a spirit of the bitterest distillation prevails."

This bitter spirit was well illustrated in a dialogue wherein a young wife sobbed: "And you used to say that you could hear the rustle of angels' wings whenever I drew near you!"

"But I found out now," the husband answered, "that the sound was the creaking of your broken corset bones!"
